

Visiting Washington, DC

If you and your family are planning a trip to Washington, DC, Chris' office can provide you with sightseeing information and assist with setting up tours of the U.S. Capitol, the White House, the Supreme Court, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, and other federal buildings. Please click below to access the tour request form.

If your trip to Washington, DC is less than two weeks away, please call Chris' office right away. The number is 202-225-4476.

Please note that the White House and the Bureau of Engraving and Printing offer limited availability and tend to fill up four to six months in advance.

The White House and Bureau of Engraving and Printing will be closed to tours from December 24, 2012 to January 1, 2013.

Fill out my Tour Request Form

Voice of America Studio Tour

You can also arrange a behind-the-scenes look at Voice of America, an international broadcasting agency funded by the U.S. Government with a worldwide audience of 123 million people every week. Tours are available Mon-Fri, except federal holidays, at 12pm and 3pm. Reservations are recommended. Private group tours can also be requested.

Call
(202)-203-4990 or visit www.voatour.com
for more information.

Metro:
&Enfant Plaza or Federal Center SW