If you are waiting for a hearing with SSA and you have a "dire need" or terminal illness, you can submit the information to us with a consent form. We can research your case and put a Congressional inquiry on your case. "Dire need" includes a foreclosure or eviction notice from the court system.

If you believe that the SSA office made an error on your behalf, please contact your local Social Security office to appeal their determination within sixty days.

If you need additional assistance with Social Security, please contact Hilda in my office, 860-223-8412.
