

Military

In order for our office to assist an active duty service member with any issues, we suggest that you first work through your chain of command. Should you require additional assistance once you have worked with your chain of command, please feel free to contact Stephanie at 860-223-8412. If you are a military member serving overseas, please feel free to email me using the "Contact Chris" button on the right side of the page.
