

Murphy Brings Economy Conversation to Downtown Plainville Businesses

August 3, 2010

NEW BRITAIN - Today, Congressman Chris Murphy (CT-5) joined Mark DeVoe, Plainville's Economic Development Director, and town council members for a walking tour of downtown Plainville's businesses. Murphy talked with local entrepreneurs about the challenges they are facing in this tough economic climate, and efforts underway in Congress to help create jobs and get Connecticut's economy moving forward.
